Creating the Receptive Mind

2-Day Intensive: Hypnosis in Time-Limited Therapy: Fundamentals of the Ericksonian Approach

September 19th & 20th, 2013
Thursday/Friday

Course Description: What is hypnosis? What is the Ericksonian difference? How do you help patients elicit a constructive trance experience? What is the most effective way to present ideas in order to work with resistances? How do you take methods from hypnosis and apply them to practice without the necessity of formal trance? Participants will learn how to elicit a trance state and how to enhance responsiveness through the application of novel assessment criteria based on the styles and values of the individual.

Presenter:
Jeffrey K. Zeig, Ph.D.

Founder and Director of the Milton H. Erickson Foundation, having studied intermittently with Dr. Erickson for more than six years, He edited, co-edited, authored, or coauthored more than 20 books that appear in twelve foreign languages. Dr. Zeig is the architect of The Evolution of Psychotherapy Conferences, considered the most important conferences in the history of psychotherapy.
